Bee 8 Oct 1927: Frank Poindexter, Chrysler Dealer. One of the most attractive places in the new structure at Five Forks of the Jefferson Avenue Improvement Association is the Chrysler Headquarters which include a large display and storage rooms on Loyal street with the repair and service department on the second floor with entrance on Jefferson. The Chrysler Agency is in charge of Frank Poindexter, formerly with Salem Motors, Inc., Winston-Salem, N.C., with a sales force made up of H. T. Stinson, H. B. Barnes, F. C. Crawley and J. E. Franklin, bookkeeper. Mr. J. E. Harris is foreman of the shop and is assisted by Tom Bailey and E. C. Shorter. The Chrysler agency is one of the foremost automobile distributors in Danville and the business here is steadily growing.

Bee 8 Oct 1927: Good Gulf Service Station. Located at Five Forks, corner Jefferson and Loyal, the Good Gulf Service Station is one of the most attractive filling stations in the State. The station is owned by Gammon Motor Company, Chatham, and is in charge of G. B. Wagner, local manager. They, of course, handle Good Gulf gasoline and other Gulf products. The station is equipped to render a general service to the passing motorist and is modern and up to date in its appointments.
